Folsom Dam – cofferdam leak, Folsom, Sacramento County

- On 01/20/16 at 0726 hours, the California State Warning Center (CSWC) received a report indicating that there was a leak at the cofferdam at Folsom Dam.
- Per the Department of Water Resources (DWR), the only anticipated impacts would be to water and water quality; there are no inundation concerns downstream.
- The CSWC reached out to the DWR who advised the following:
 - There is a leak at the cofferdam on the spillway at Folsom Dam.
 - Contractors and the Army Corps of Engineers are mitigating the situation.
 - DWR Flood Ops advises there is no threat to flood control systems presently.
 - The DWR Flood Operations Center (FOC) is not activated.
 - There are no requests for State assistance.
- Per the Cal OES Inland Region Duty Officer (IDO):
 - Sacramento County OES confirmed DWR's information.
 - They do anticipate the cofferdam to fail at some point.
 - Because the gate was able to be closed and the potential flood concern downstream was mitigated, they see this now as a hazmat issue.
 - They currently do not plan to activate their EOC.
- The Cal OES Fire Duty Officer (FDO) advises there is potential for two 800 gallon diesel tanks and equipment containing fuel to be impacted.
- Cal OES Duty Officers are gathering information and will provide updates as they become available.
